

THE PRESENT TIME
Exultate Chamber Singers
featuring pianist Robert Kortgaard
Friday, May 14, 2010 (8 p.m.)
St. Thomas's Anglican Church, 383 Huron Street, Toronto

For Immediate Release

Toronto, April 10, 2010 – On Friday, May 14, 2010, at 8 p.m., Toronto's award-winning Exultate Chamber Singers present The Present Time at St. Thomas's Anglican Church, 383 Huron Street (near St. George and Bloor).

Exultate rounds out the season with a concert featuring settings of Shakespeare texts, including works by Harry Freedman, Derek Holman, William Matthias, Ralph Vaughan Williams and more! The concert will also feature pianist Robert Kortgaard, who recorded many of these works with the choir on the CD The Present Time (2001).

Exultate [pron. egg-zool-TAH-teh] has established a reputation for performing a broad range of fine music – sacred and secular, ancient and modern – at a very high standard. "This is a serious choir with a serious director," commented John Terauds in The Toronto Star (2004). Exultate has four recordings to its credit: A Choral Flourish, Make We Joy!, The Present Time and All Around The Circle; the latter is a collection of Canadian choral gems. Conductor John Tuttle founded the Exultate Chamber Singers in 1981. He is also organist and choirmaster of St. Thomas's Anglican Church in Toronto and adjunct associate professor of organ at the Faculty of Music, University of Toronto. In 2005, John was awarded an honorary Doctor of Sacred Letters degree from Trinity College, University of Toronto.
